

Free Commuter Van rides during Alaskan Way Viaduct Closure

Ride FREE in any King County Metro Commuter Van with availability for the duration of the Alaskan Way Viaduct Closure (April 29, 2016 thru May 13, 2016).

Vanpools are fun and can save you time and money. A 30-mile round trip commute with seven riders costs only $77 a month and includes gas, insurance, maintenance and a guaranteed ride home in case of an emergency or illness.

Visit RideshareOnline.com to see if an existing commuter van matches your schedule or contact King County Metro at 206-625-4500 for help to find one. Many vans have extra room, you just need to confirm availability and arrange your ride with the group drive or public contact.

Existing Vans: Visit www.KingCounty.gov/RideshareRewards to learn how to get $50 for your group.
